We are not daily beggars that beg from door to door
 We are your neighbours' children that you have seen before
 We are your neighbours' children that you have seen before

I have a little purse it's made of leather skin
 I need a silver sixpence to line it well within
 I need a silver sixpence to line it well within

God bless the master of the house and then the mistress too
 And all the little children that round the table grew
 And all the little children that round the table grew

Here we come a-Wassailing among the leaves so green
 Here we come a wandering so fairly to be seen
 Here we come a wandering so fairly to be seen
